

About the Owner

Nicki began her journey to homeopathic and naturopathic remedies years ago, after health issues forced her to go from doctor to doctor with no relief. Frustrated, she began to research integrative methods of treating her conditions, and a passion was born. Nicki brings her no-nonsense attitude, education and first-hand experience to you at a comfortable family atmosphere with a positive, homey environment. Let the staff at Remedies show you how care, compassion and special products can make a difference in your quest for health.

My mission, as owner of Remedies, is to expose, then eradicate, the causes of illness and disease in a caring and professional manner with the most efficient and effective methods, resulting in good health and wellbeing for a lifetime.

While in the process of helping you attain good health and wellbeing, Remedies will educate you on the means to successfully maintain it.
